CCP FORCES COMBAT KMT GUERRILLAS

GUERRILLAS ACTIVE IN 10-FOU SHAN AREA -- Kung-shang Jih-pao, 12 Nov 49

Fo-lo, 11 November -- Over 200 KM's guerrillas from the Fo-lo, Tseng-ch'eng, and Lung-men areas and from the Ch'ung-hsū, Pai-hao, and Su-lao monastariss in Lo-fou Shan, Kvangtung, recently attacked the CCF South China Volunteers Training Center, killing seven training officers and capturing more than 50 rifles.

After this incident, a CCF military unit was dispatched to Lo-fou Shan and the various villages west of Fo-lo to wipe out underground activities. More than ten facist priests of the Ch'ung-hau and Fac-hao monasteries were arrested on suspicion of concesling the KKT guerrilla leader, Tu Jung-2'ai (Ueda: 6340, 2352, 2846), alias Tu Meng (6310, 2890), and for abstring the massacre of Communist members. These priests were taken to the Tseng-ch'eng headquarters where they were reprimanted.

According to a report made by the CCF Kwangtung South China Front Line Headquarters, more than 500 kWT guerrillas, under the command of Feng Sung (13682, 2638) in Lo-fou Shan, are now actively engaged in disrupting communications. They also hinder Communist recruiting of soldiers, levying of provisions, etc.

To suppress KMT guerrilla activities in these areas, the Communists dispatched four companies to attack Yu and Feng, the two KMT leaders. However, since the KMT guerrillas are holding advantageous positions, these units have not been able to complete their mission.

KMT BANDIT MOP-UP IN TOMAN -- Wen-hui Pao, 16 Nov 49

In June 1949, the entire province of Homan undertook the task of bandit clearance. After one month the core of the bandit forces was broken by the combined effort or the military and civilian forces. From July 1949 to October 1949, over 50,000 bandits were exterminated and it is reported that the task is nearing completion.

Even before the liberation of Homan, bandits in this province were being supported by the KMT. For the most part, the bandit forces are now composed of dispersed KMT military personnel, local troops, and former KMT special agents. Since the liberation of this province, the bandits have been actively carrying out destructive activities.
